

January 29, 2009

SPORTS

Parkland YMCA center has sports of all sorts

By JASON STROMBERG
SPORTS EDITOR

The Parkland YMCA Family Center, a branch of the YMCA of Broward County, announced that registration is now open for various sports programs inside its own local arena.

■ After-school, multi-sports fun club for boys and girls, ages 6 to 11 from 4 to 5 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

■ Winter basketball clinics on Tuesdays and Thursdays for players ages 6 to 14.

■ Sports of All Sorts for special needs boys and girls ages kindergarten through fifth-grade from 3:30 to 4 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

■ Indoor soccer league beginning on March 9.

■ Indoor basketball league for kids ages 6 to 14 in March.

■ Volleyball clinics for club volleyball players ages 6 to 14 from 2 to 4 p.m. on Sundays.

■ Volleyball league for club volleyball starts in February.

■ School-age children classes and after school enrichment classes for school-age children consist of Mad Science, Cheerleading, Ballet, Tumbling and Movement, Kids Cooking Academy, When School Is Out the Y is In for full-day child care fun from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

Special events in February include American Heart Month. Visit the Parkland YMCA for wellness incentive programs and lectures.

The Parkland YMCA Family Center is located at 10559 Trails End. For more information, contact Director of Operations Robin Miller at rmiller@ymca-broward.org, www.parklandymca.org or 954-384-9622.