Free swim classes

by MomsMiami on Thu Feb 19, 2009 9:54 pm

The YMCA in Hollywood is offering a 10-week water safety course for free to the first 100 people who sign up. The course is for kids 5 to 12.

The program consists of 30-minute sessions every Saturday from February 28 to May 2. Participants can select times from 9:00 am to 11:00 am.

For more information, call 954.989.9622 or stop by the Greater Hollywood YMCA Family Center at 3161 Taft St.

This is one of many programs in the community to help combat an epidemic of child drownings in South Florida.

For other places that offer swimming lessons, scroll to the bottom of our On the Web page -- <http://www.momsmiami.com/index.php?a=ontheweb>.
